ATTENTION:

Oregon law prohibits the issuance of a concealed handgun license to anyone with a felony conviction, a misdemeanor conviction within the last four years or anyone on pretrial release. Oregon law allows for the denial of a concealed handgun license if the Sheriff determines you are a danger based upon a past pattern of unlawful violence or threats of unlawful violence. Federal law (18 USC 922) prohibits issuance of a license to anyone who has ever been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence. Federal law prohibits anyone who is subject to a court restraining order or stalking order relating to domestic violence – to purchase and possess firearms and ammunition or engage in activities involving firearms. In addition, 18 USC 922 prohibits anyone who has renounced their United States citizenship, anyone who has been dishonorably discharged from the United States Armed Services, anyone who is an illegal alien and anyone who is an unlawful user of controlled substances from purchasing or possessing firearms.

- (A) Completion of any hunter safety education or hunter safety course approved by the State department of Fish and Wildlife or a similar agency of another state if handgun safety was a component of the course.
- (B) Completion of any NRA firearms safety or training course if handgun safety was a component of the course.

You must carry your valid concealed handgun license with you whenever you carry a concealed handgun. Failure of a person who carries a concealed handgun also to carry a concealed handgun license is prima facie evidence that the person does not have such a license.

It is the responsibility of the individual license holder to be aware of the expiration date of their license and notify the Sheriff's Office.

ORS 166.295 (2) If a licensee changes residence, the licensee shall report the change of address and the Sheriff shall issue a new license as a duplication for a change of address.
